Phone 143. Alakea and King StsSCOTT IS NOW KONA RECEIVERMill is Ready to Start and Grinding Will Begin at Once.News was received yesterday of the appointment by Judge Edings of M. F.
Scott as the temporary receiver for the Kona Sugar Co., this action having been presaged some time ago in The Advertiser. The appointment is a temporary one, and it is understood that Mr. Scott is ready to step aside if the occasion demands. It is the hope of the Honolulu stockholders of the Kona plantation that Mr. S. M. Damon, who was present in court and gave his consent to the order, may yet see his way clear to accept the receivership, and in this event Receiver Scott will retire.Mr. Damon is expected home on the Mauna Loa today and will immediately have a conference with the representatives of the bondholders and others interested in the property. He has been investigating the conditions of the company, and it is hoped by the stockholders that he will consent to finance the plantation. Mr. Scott has given bond in the sum of $50,000, the amount fixed by Judge Edings.The new mill of the Kona Sugar Co. has been completed and grinding will probably begin immediately. Cane will be brought in at once, so that grinding may begin, though it is intended to operate the mill but twelve hours a day.
As soon as the cane is cut in sufficient quantity two shifts will be worked.

LEPERS IN JAPAN.

Proposed Measure to Bring About Their Isolation.Mr. Saito and three other members of the House of Representatives introduced a representation in the Lower House yesterday for the special control of lepers in this country, in order to prevent the spread of the disgusting disease. The plan suggested for adoption was to isolate the sufferers. Mr. Saito, in explaining the reason for this representation, stated that this abominable disease had existed in Japan since ancient times and that about 1450 years ago an asylum was established in Nara, on behalf of the sufferers, by the Imperial munificence, and even at present traces of this hospital remained. As this disease was feared at that time, asylums were established in various places for the sufferers. But at present nothing of the kind existed. The reason was that although the disease was feared, it was considered hereditary, and therefore not contagious except by marriage with affected persons, and consequently no special measures were adopted. It was discovered, however, about thirty years ago that there were bacteria peculiar to the disease and that they were virulent to affect persons in the same manner as cholera, pest, etc.
In every civilized country, therefore, lepers were carefully looked after and specially controlled. In Germany lep-rosy was included among contagious diseases such as cholera and pest. According to the investigations of the Sanitary Bureau, made at the end of the year before last, the number of lepers in Japan was 39,359, and those related to these sufferers reached one million.
These estimates were the result of investigations conducted by the police, and it was safe to surmise, therefore, that the actual figures were double that number, that is about sixty thousand patients. In Hawaii the result of investigations made last year showed that lepers in that island, which was notorious for this disease, did not exceed one thousand. Now that its contagious nature has been ascertained, it should not be ignored any longer. It was only natural, therefore, that foreigners fresh from their own countries should be surprised to see lepers in Japan abandoned on roadsides. The speaker concluded his speech by expressing a hope that necessary measures would be quickly taken to prevent the spread of the disease. The representation was unanimously carried.—Yokohama Herald.The fireman is in great danger from falling bricks or timbers as well as from the flames. No fire department is properly equipped without a supply of iment is unexcelled for burns and bruises. One application gives relief.

AT THE Y. M. C. A.List Prepared by International Committee Considered
Last Night.The first of the international examinations of the Young Men's Christian Association took place last night at the Association hall, arithmetic being the subject considered. All over the United States, wherever there was a Y. M. C.
A., examinations were held last night, and the papers, which average seventy-five per cent, will be forwarded to the International Committee, No. 3 West Twenty-ninth street, New York City, where they will be given a careful inspection.The next examination will take place this evening, and will be for the purpose of testing the students' knowledge of bookkeeping. On Wednesday evening, April 2, stenography will be the subject; Thursday evening, mechanical drawing; and faith and conduct; Friday evening, English, typewriting, progressive studies, Christ among men.A report on the papers which have been found by the International Committee to have exceptional merit, will be forwarded to all the secretaries.
Certificates will also be made out in the names of those who have been successful. This entitles the holders to consideration at colleges or other schools.BOARDMAN LOTSKINAU STREET,
